

Using Orders schema and Common Table expressions write a SQL statement for the query:

1. For each employee display the employee name and the total price of products sold for which the employee represented the client. The employees should be descending based on the totals.